

5th Grade Literary Question Stems 2013 Released STAAR

How does _____ solve the problem?	From the events in the story, the reader can conclude_____.
Why does it make sense that the character feels a certain way?	Which words from the paragraph help the reader know what the word _____ means?
Which sentence from the story best shows that _____?	Sequence of events... Before this, what happened?
Cause-Effect... When this happened, what occurred?	Read this sentence. This sentence shows that the character feels_____.
The poet uses the figurative expression _____ to emphasize that the speaker_____.	The poet uses line _____ to signal that the speaker changes from _____ to _____.
In line_____, why does the poet repeat and italicize the words from line_____?	The poem is mostly about a speaker who_____.

5th Grade Literary Question Stems 2013 Released STAAR

The poet uses figurative language in line ____ to highlight the speaker's _____.	Which of these helps ____ solve the problem?
The play is divided into two scenes because _____.	Which of these is the best summary of scene _____?
What can the reader infer about the character from this excerpt?	The playwright included _____ in scene __ most likely to _____.
How is character 1 different from character 2?	Which of the props used in this play is needed for the resolution of the conflict?